Library

Albert Einstein says, "The only thing that you absolutely have to know, is the location of the library." In the full-fledged library of Patrician College, students can access various books and digital resources for reference in their academic study and development.

Libraries are essential in a process of giving citizens access to knowledge. In digital times, they are more needed. As the acquisition of knowledge depends mostly on reading, man has to read as necessarily as he has to eat. It adds to what he has already learnt and makes him strong and fit for noble
