CITIZEN CONSUMER CLUB
ANNUAL REPORT
2015 - 2016

Consumer club

“The consumer, so it is said, is the king each is a voter who uses his money as a vote to get the thing done that he wants done”

Paul A .Samuelson,American Economist

The college encourages various club activities and citizen consumer club is one among them. The role of Citizen Consumer Club of Patrician college of arts and science is to empower all consumer segments of the society to obtain a just deal in the purchase of goods and services of the public and to impart consumer education among the society and the college students, the objectives include spreading awareness on consumer rights amongst all consumer segments, sensitizing manufacturers, service providers on consumer rights and quality, to help consumers get justice when affected, to continuously access policy changes required in each sector for consumer empowerment, to identify and weed out unfair trade practices in delivery of goods as well as services and to provide and to promote sustainable consumption.

MESSAGE

Bro. T. Sebastian
Director & Secretary

On this bright occasion, it is my privilege to congratulate the Citizen Consumer Club of Patrician college for all their enterprising and innovative activities. No one is above the law and this is evident is the extent of coverage of the legal system of India. In accordance with the law and in keeping with the vision of the college to develop law abiding citizens, the Citizen Consumer Club has helped greatly in bringing about awareness of consumer rights within legal frameworks and systems. Teaching and initiating students to become responsible citizens who carry out their fundamental duties as citizens without being told and question , if their rights are infringed, will be our common goals. The club takes much effort in bringing awareness among the student community with their untiring efforts such as exhibitions, rallies, attending competitions in other colleges and even hosting competitions among the college and school students. All these efforts have been highly commended by the Patrician community and in accordance with the same, I wish the Consumer Club all the best for its future extension, expansion and consumer education.
